6/7 July 2024

Our base-camp hub in idyllic Bakewell will welcome over 2,000 adventurers who will test themselves in the fabulous Peak District National Park. There's a full range of camping options, car parking, and extensive hospitality & welfare services across the weekend – with a full 100 km Challenge which takes a tough & varied figure of 8 route through Derbyshire's finest scenery. You'll get full support all the way, and with three quarter, half, quarter & 10 mile distance options also which pass Chatsworth House – there's a Peak District Ultra Challenge for everyone!

Distance options

The Peak District Ultra Challenge starts and finishes at our basecamp hub in Bakewell – with a ‘figure of 8’ route. The Full 100km route takes a northern loop of the surrounding area – known for its outstanding natural beauty before returning back to basecamp, marking the end of the challenge for some. Those on the Full 100km and 2nd Half will then head out on a southern looped route exploring more of this wonderful area. With a range of distances to suit your challenge, camping across the weekend for you & your supporters, and full support & hospitality, it’ll be a weekend to remember!
