Get active & explore some of the Capital's less known historic areas with a tour of the 'gateway to London' along the Thames's eastern section. Starting alongside the grandeur of Woolwich Royal Artillery Barracks (short walk from Elizabeth Line station!) – our main 25 km looped route heads down to the Thames, through the Woolwich Tunnel and into Docklands. It's back under the River via the Greenwich Foot Tunnel, past the Cutty Sark and a rest stop at the Old Naval College. Then along the Thames to the Greenwich Peninsula, past the O2, past the Thames Barrier, through Charlton, and back up to basecamp in Woolwich. A route steeped in history with iconic sights, and capped with a meal, bar & music at the finish – making for a wonderful end of summer celebration!

New route for 2024 new distances will be added soon.

“A great experience, which I thoroughly enjoyed, already looking to book again!”

“The whole experience of walking round London but with the sunrise over tower bridge was brilliant.”
