HOW TO JOIN

You can join any of our Ultra Challenge® events as an 'official corporate team' of 6+ colleagues or business partners. The best way to get involved is to contact our team initially, and we can then figure out the best way of making your Challenge work well for your team.

There are a number of ways signing up a team - and we'll get the details right to make it smooth & hassle free at your end, including the fiddly admin & colleague communication normally associated with getting a team recruited on to an event.

We have payment options too to suit your needs:

SELF FUNDING - pay the full cost of each place as team members sign up - or we can issue a single invoice to your company. There's no fundraising obligation but the team can do so if they wish, or if you have an arrangement with a chosen charity and want to support them.

We also offer 'structured' CHARITY FUNDRAISING options - which we've agreed with hundreds of UK charities - and is a great way to support your chosen charity of the year and get colleagues involved.

FULL CHARITY SPONSORSHIP - with low upfront participant registration fees, and relatively high fundraising targets for the charity. The charity then covers the remaining cost of the event places.

MIXED FUNDING - is a mix of the above 2 options, and popular with corporate teams as it keeps the fundraising targets lower. Half of the event place cost is paid when participants sign up (or we invoice the company) - then fundraise for your chosen charity who cover the other half of the cost.

- ✓ Mix & Match - distance options & pace
- ✓ We provide materials to help with your recruitment
- ✓ Data link provided for easy Team admin
- ✓ We liaise with your charity to sort the details
- ✓ Optional hospitality packages to make it special
- ✓ Full account management & support
- ✓ Flexible payment options

Hundreds of corporate teams take on an Ultra Challenge each year - so why bring your group together and join us in 2024? Let our team know the name of your company, which Ultra Challenge might suit, the approx. team size - and any charity you may have in mind.
